

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Rev. John J. Roll

Proistamenos

June 1, 2010

Dear Friend of Assumption Church in Long Beach,

Long Beach's annual Greek Festival is on the horizon. It will take place Labor Day weekend, September 4-6, 2010, on the Assumption Greek Church grounds: 5761 East Colorado Street, Long Beach. There is work to be done from September 1, through September 10, 2009.

In order to reach our goal, we need your help. We are looking for volunteers for our Long Beach Greek Festival. This will be our 60th Spectacular Anniversary. Our festival serves 12 –15 thousands of guests every year. The proceeds from the festival will benefit our building fund and in turn will benefit the Long Beach community at large by providing a gymnasium and classrooms for our youth and our outreach charitable organizations, as well as staff offices.

The Assumption Church of Long Beach is a long time participant with local charity organizations. Some of the organizations that we contribute to and provide services for in the Long Beach area are: The Long Beach Mission, Food Finders, For the Child, Trinity Homes, Precious Lamb, and Arts for the Disabled. In addition, we contribute to and assist with Kids n' Cancer which is an active ministry through-out South California.

Volunteer positions available:

Setting up and taking down BOOTH signs and small equipment, before and after festival , cutting of vegetables, booth food runners , bringing water or soda to vendors, assist at entrance gate with traffic at busy hours, help with inventory and stocking, selling raffle tickets, possibly wearing Greek costumes and walk around for guest to take picture with, help cleaning up table after guest have eaten inside the dining room and outside in the court yard, give information to guests, mingle with guest, welcome guest in, make sure they are happy and content, help fill out survey forms, and as extras – watch kids at the kids zone area, this year we will have a full carnival at the church grounds.

Also we have volunteer hours in marketing, advertising, ad book follow up, recording of statistic, data entry, computer input, filling, typing receipt for donations, and sending out thank you notes.
